

Civil War Living History Weekend At The Zimmerman-Bury Octagon House

June 1st 10 to dusk; House open 11-5

June 2nd 10 to 3; House open 10-3

$10 Parking Donation will go towards historic property preservation work at this national landmark.

Come out and tour the house to learn the history of the property, and then walk the grounds where Re-enactors will bring history alive during the Civil War. Walk thru the Civilian Camp to visit with Living Historians spinning wool. Visit the Civil War Herb Lady with medicinal herbs & tussie mussies to make and take for $1.

Meet President & Mrs. Lincoln. Preview a display on Major Pauline Cushman, Spy of the Cumberland, and capture your image with the old tyme photographer. You won't want to miss an authentic Ladies High Tea on Saturday afternoon, or the evening musical entertainment when you visit the camps by candlelight.

Please Pre-Register for the Ladies Tea & Featured Speaker Kathy Kraus

All pre-registered guests for the Tea will receive a free parking pass.
